A struggle, a quest occurs where all candidates strive for perfection. Some are talented, others less gifted. Yet all are potential headliners.

They shape. They mold. They influence. They were once actors, but now have mastered their act.

DIRECTORS

REHEARSALS

A missed cue, a forgotten part at rehearsal affects the whole play. Now is the time to get out the flaws for the act must be perfect.

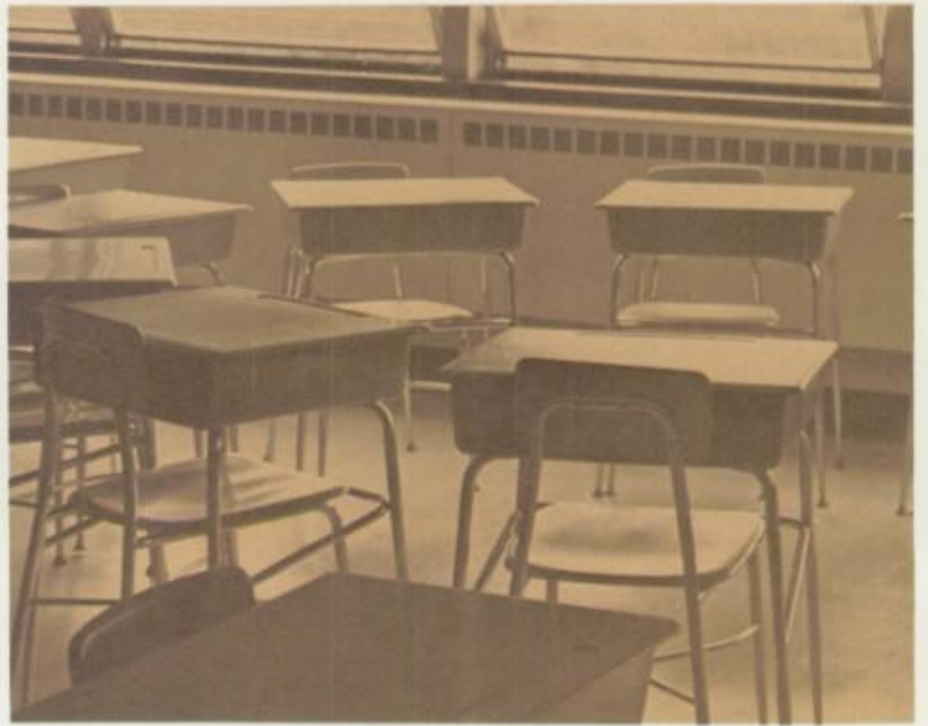

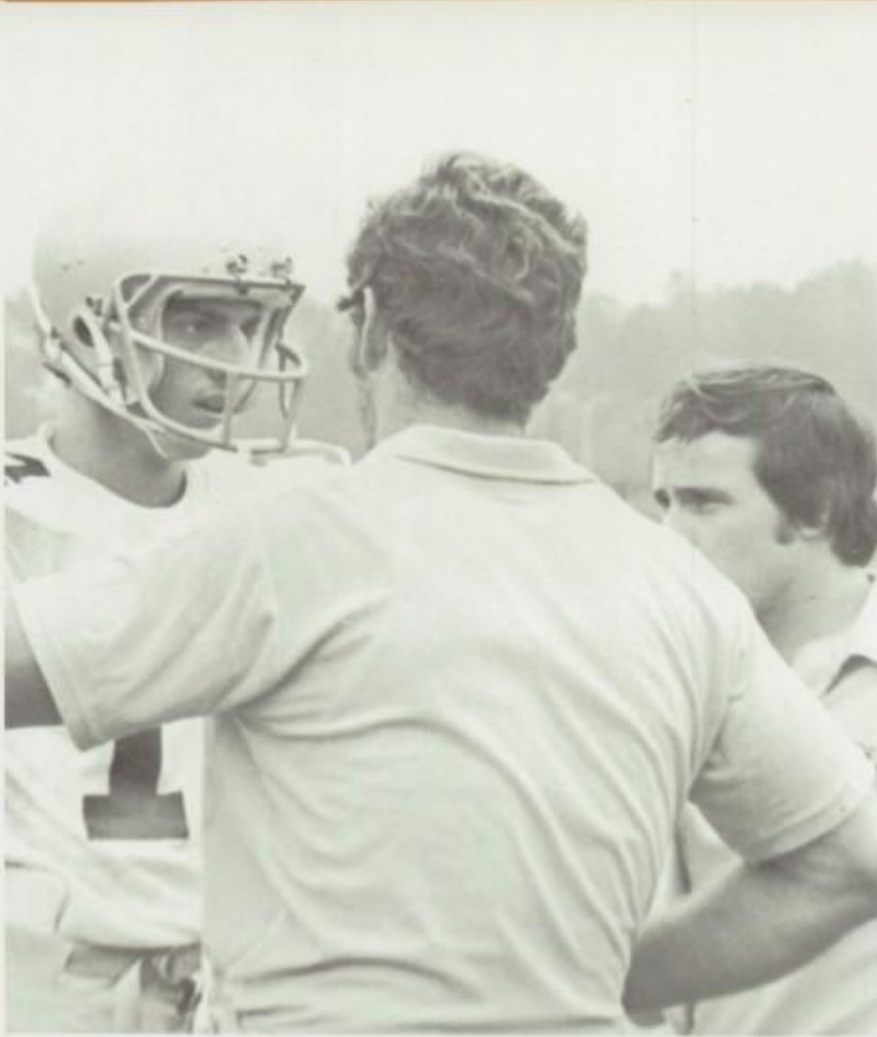

Sometimes it is good to get away from the thoughts of work. Work is important, but a pause along the way makes a better act in the end.

INTERMISSION

UNDERSTUDIES

These are the ones waiting for the spotlight to focus upon them, the future actors yet to be revealed.

The finished drama presents an accumulation of all practice sessions. The toil has been worth the price of success, and the show will go on.

Bishop, Founder share interest in St. Anthony High

Since SAH's inception in 1962, Bishop George W. Ahr of Trenton has responded to his Vicar General's, Monsignor Michael P. McCorristin's high school by his constant interest and encouragement and by his participation at every graduation ceremony from 1965 to the present.

Monsignor McCorristin, founder of SAH, fondly watches its progress and inspires its administrators to carry out the purposes of its foundation.

Monsignor Thomas Luebking, Diocesan School Superintendent, aids SAH directly through his coordination of Catholic education at the Diocesan Office of Education.

Administrators unite to benefit SAH students

The school's administrators in cooperation with Sr. Elizabeth Staudenmeier, Principal, merge their individual abilities to produce a well-organized school. Mr. Richard Carson, Associate Principal, guides Sr. Therese in establishing a carefully rostered student body. Mr. Charles Clerke, Administrative Assistant, attends to the purchases of the departments of the school to control finances. Sr. Alice Cecilia as Co-ordinator of Financial Affairs complements Mr. Clerke's duties by her proficient handling of accounts. This unity among administrators frees Sr. Elizabeth to devote much time and effort to the school's scholastic improvement.

Sister Elizabeth invites John Pesarini, senior, to read the names of the team captains who have won the annual GAA trophy.

Films, lectures enrich courses in Religion

Under the direction of Sister Helen Young, the Religion chairperson, the Religion teachers enrich their daily instruction by frequently providing guest speakers. Among these speakers are missionaries, who served in foreign missions and vocational directors from various religious orders. Likewise, films correlate and visualize the religious topics scheduled in the courses of study. This department also plans liturgies for masses before secular and religious holidays.

Boys also follow courses in Home Economics; Business courses are functional

Home Economics, under the guidance of Mrs. Marie Kleber, enables young women to learn the fundamentals of sewing and cooking. An accelerated course develops advanced sewing techniques and gives the student the opportunity to test and compare new food products. Bachelors Living, added this year, gives young men the chance to acquire basic skills in the culinary arts and sewing in order to aid them in developing their personal independence.

SAH boys succeed in Drafting courses; Studies Department handles 23-period schedule

Drafting I and II, sequential courses which boys in sophomore, junior and senior years and a few girls choose as foundation for later college courses, are among special offerings of SAH. Sister Marie Olivette, chairperson and teacher of these courses has trained boys in this art for several years.

The Studies Department, under the direction of Sister Therese, assumes the manifold task of rostering more than 1100 students in business, vocational or college-bound courses. This program functions proficiently because a day of 23 fifteen-minute periods benefits half-hour lunch periods, science labs, Home Ec. courses and outdoor activities for physical education classes.

SAH trains grade-school musicians, offers studio, commercial art

MR. TIMOTHY KETTERER
Music Chairperson

MRS. ANGELA MCCRACKEN
Art Chairperson

Unique is the service Mr. Timothy Ketterer, music chairperson, gives to the children of the grammar schools which feed SAH. After devoting his energies to the high school's music schedule, he spends his afternoons teaching instrumental music to grade school students.

In the art department, Mrs. Angela McCracken, offers sophomores, juniors and seniors the opportunity to study studio art in a two-year course. An offering also for juniors and seniors is commercial art.

Director of Students functions with assistant; Librarians update books

To Mr. Adrian Seitz falls the overwhelming job of handling student department before, during and after school. With the assistance of his associate, Mrs. Pauline Mains, who supervises the halls, and his secretary, Mrs. Anna Kosul who handles absentee lists, he calmly but firmly keeps SAH students aware of their responsibilities as mature people in the educative process.

Miss Kathleen Faraglia, formerly a full-time English teacher, accepted the position of SAH librarian on the retirement of Mrs. Dorothy Schnorbus in June, 1977. Miss Faraglia has the monumental tasks of updating reference and research materials and ordering and maintaining AV equipment and aids. She is assisted by Mrs. Alice Pilger.

Guidance counselors direct counselees for four years

Every student at SAH benefits from the direction of a guidance counselor who directs his counselees during their four years. In addition to giving advice about school policies, rostering and testing, the counselors of the Guidance Department under their chairperson, Sister Miriam Rose, assist counselees in determining their future professions or careers.

Language, Math Departments stress proficiency

The language department, directed by Mr. Kevin Sirak, strives to develop a working knowledge of grammar and syntax in the various languages and also proficiency in vocabulary, writing and the spoken word of each language. The several foreign languages offered in all years are German, French, and Spanish. Latin, however, is only offered in the first, second, and third years.

The math department, under the guidance of Sister Cornelius Marie, has provided an excellent curriculum in math ranging from General Mathematics to such advanced courses as Algebra II /Trigonometry and Math Analysis. The department's goal is to formulate a working knowledge of mathematics so that a student can analyze and solve intuitively the problems presented.

This Latin student realizes the importance of following Father Jose's guidance in correcting structure.

Social Studies presents diversity in courses

The social studies department, under the guidance of Mr. John Yager, covers the many different facets of history from American Government to Psychology. The aim of the courses is to provide the student with the necessary background in the local and state community as well as the federal. Courses such as Anthropology, however, deals with the examination of man and his society. This valid curriculum appeals to the diverse interests of the students.

Physical Education supplies body fitness activities

The physical education program, headed by Mr. Angelo Nitti, stresses the importance of physical fitness. It is supplemented by many activities in which the fundamental skills of each sport are taught; such as, tennis, bowling (new this year), basketball, volleyball, soccer, handball and the necessary calisthenics which help keep the body in tone. The health program simply highlights the important aspects and functions of the body needed to maintain optimum health.

Seven Secretaries hold full-time positions

In all offices of SAH, a private secretary handles statistics and required official forms of each department; such as, Principal, Guidance, Studies, Students, Attendance, Library and Finances. These full-time secretaries, vital to the school's fluid functioning, keep records of these major departments up-to-date. Each secretary is not only responsible to her department chairperson but also has the responsibility of typing records and forms and checking on errors.

Total science curriculum prepares for college.

The science department, under the direction of Sister Leslie Birks, provides the students with the best possible curriculum in science. These courses include an inquisitive look into the physical and biological aspects of the science field. Enriched courses, such as Anatomy and Physiology, Chemistry II, Chem Study and BSCS Biology, deal with the basic concepts to a greater extent while including scientific analysis, problem solving, and laboratory experimentation. The total science curriculum offered constitutes a firm scientific background for the college-bound student.

UNDERSTUDIES

Election of SC officers highlights freshmen year

The curtain rose on the class of 1981 on September 7, 1977 when the new students attended Mass in the morning. Rehearsal began in homerooms, where the freshmen completed forms, found their lockers and received their rosters. Their first day ended with a run-through of their schedules for the 1977-78 school year.

This year all freshmen take Religious Studies, English, Mathematics and Physical Education and Health. From 13 elective courses each new student must select three. They have a choice of: Communication Arts I, French I, German I, Latin I, or Spanish I, World History or American Adventure, BSCS Biology, Biology or IPS, Chorus, Instrumental Music or Music Theory I.

The area of athletics offers many opportunities for freshmen. Qualified boys may participate in football, basketball, baseball, soccer, track, cross-country, tennis or golf. Girls have a choice of: basketball, softball, track, cross-country and cheerleading.

Other activities open to freshmen are the Choir, Band, Ski Club, Drama Club and the GAA Show. The freshmen who have joined the Student Council are in the process of electing officials to represent their class.

With a wink of an eye Thomas Auletta, 1D, discovers a new world in Advanced Biology.

Sophomore Class enjoys additional curricular, cocurricular offerings

The Class of 1980 took the stage on returning to SAH on Thursday, September 8. Beginning their year together with the celebration of Mass, the sophomores proceeded to become familiar with their new schedules.

This year the sophomores are able to move into either business or academic schedules. Typing I, Steno I, Business Math and Recordkeeping make up the list of business electives; various science and math courses constitute additional academic electives.

U.S. History I is a required course for all sophomores except those taking American Adventure. They continue Religious Studies with Worship and the Religions of Man and may choose languages for a second year. The English department offers three electives while drafting and art set the stage for creative members of the class.

The sophomore student council officers begin their terms following induction on the first day of school.

Through club openings and by eligibility for varsity sports and JV cheerleaders, the Sophomore Class becomes a more active part of the student body.

Sophomore Student Council Officers: Lisa Tysko, Treasurer; Kimberly Gore, Secretary; Theresa Festa, Vice-President; John Williams, President.

For Juniors, third year provides more electives, activities

The rising of the curtain for third year offers junior performers increased opportunities to exhibit their talent both on the academic and extracurricular levels.

Students yearning to sharpen their mechanical skills by learning a trade commute to either of the two Mercer County Vocational Schools for their training. The diverse courses available to eleventh graders allow individuals to pursue the subject area best suited for their goals. Even selecting the required English course no longer means just checking off A, B, or C; at this time one must decide whether detective, drama, or myths stimulates his creativity.

The beginning of junior year also sets the stage for a variety of extracurricular activities. The celebration of Ring Day creates a special feeling of unity and belonging and the arrival of the Junior Prom brings happiness and the realization that another eagerly anticipated day has arrived. These and many other happy occasions become the memories which highlight the routine of school life.

SAH Students benefit from occupational training at Voc-Tech Centers

At the Assunpink and Sypek Centers of the Mercer County Vocational-Technical Schools in New Jersey approximately 90 SAH students follow occupational training.

In these shared-time programs, these students, during eleventh and twelfth grades, spend part of their school day in preparing for initial employment in their chosen occupational field or for further education upon graduation.

At the Assunpink Center, opened in January, 1973, 70 boys and girls have a choice of training in the following areas: Air Condition and Refrigeration, Appliance and T.V. Repair, Auto Body Repair, Auto Mechanics, Cosmetology, Design Drafting, Diesel Mechanics, Electrical Construction and Maintenance, Electronics, General Building Construction, Health Occupations, Medical Assistant, and Welding. This center only offers Diesel Mechanics.

During the time period when these students do not attend the Vocational-Technical Schools, they follow classes at SAH. Class requirements at SHA include Religion, English, U.S. History, and Physical Education.

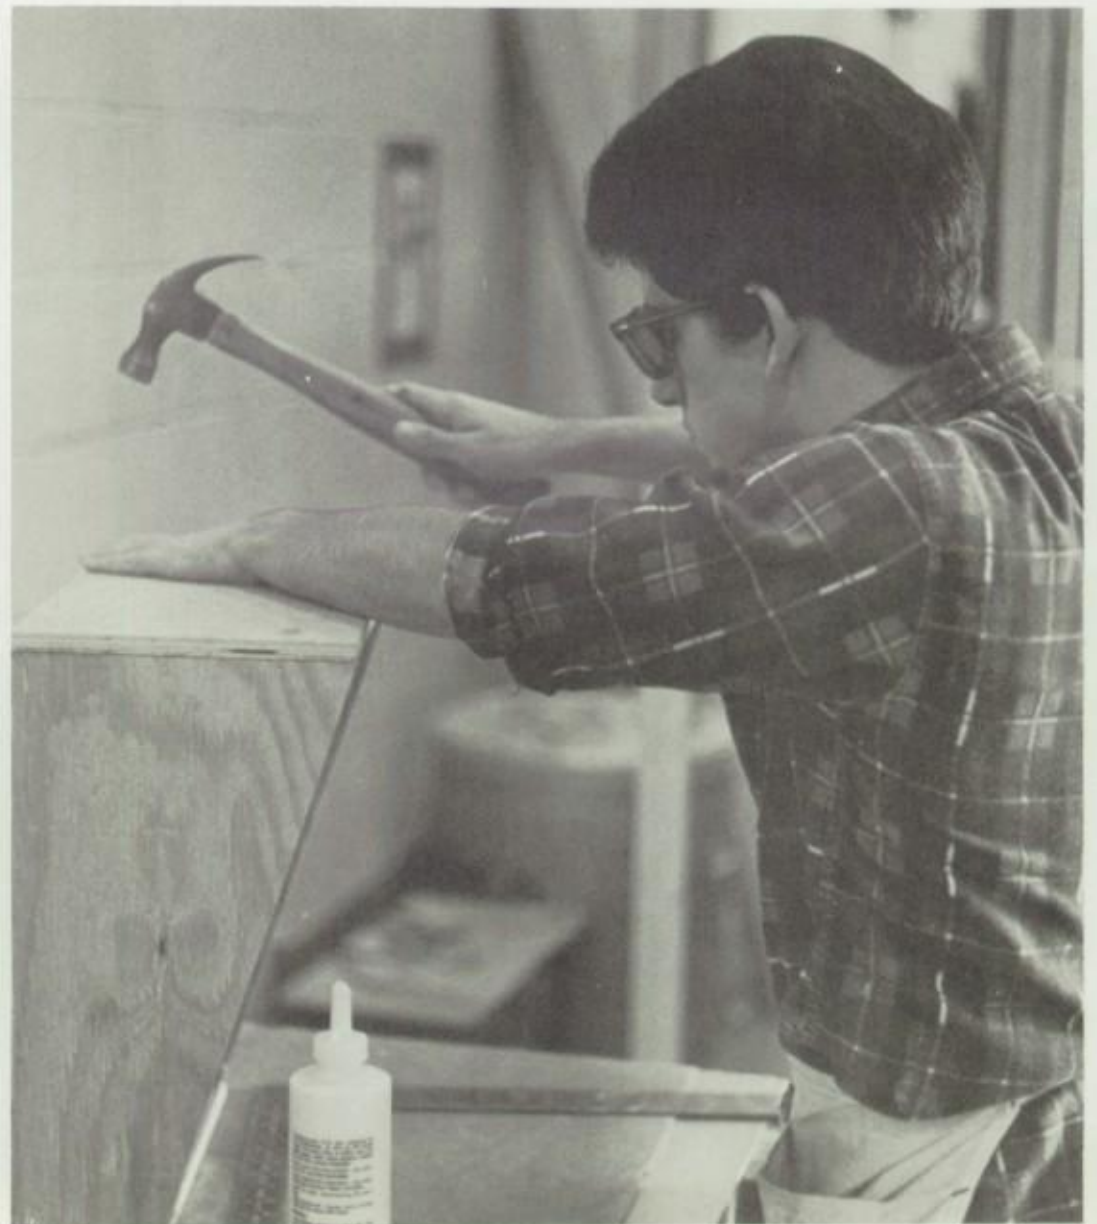

Rena Lamachia, senior, who attends Assunpink is President of VICA in New Jersey.

Mr. Neil Orlando, teacher of Design Drafting at the Assunpink Center of the Mercer County Vocational Technical School, scrutinizes seniors Salvatore Marino and Edward Fink's finished design.

Senior David Brodowski changes a tire in Auto Mechanics with strenuous know-how.

In General Building Construction, senior Michael DeBonis nails and pastes a wooden cabinet for durability.

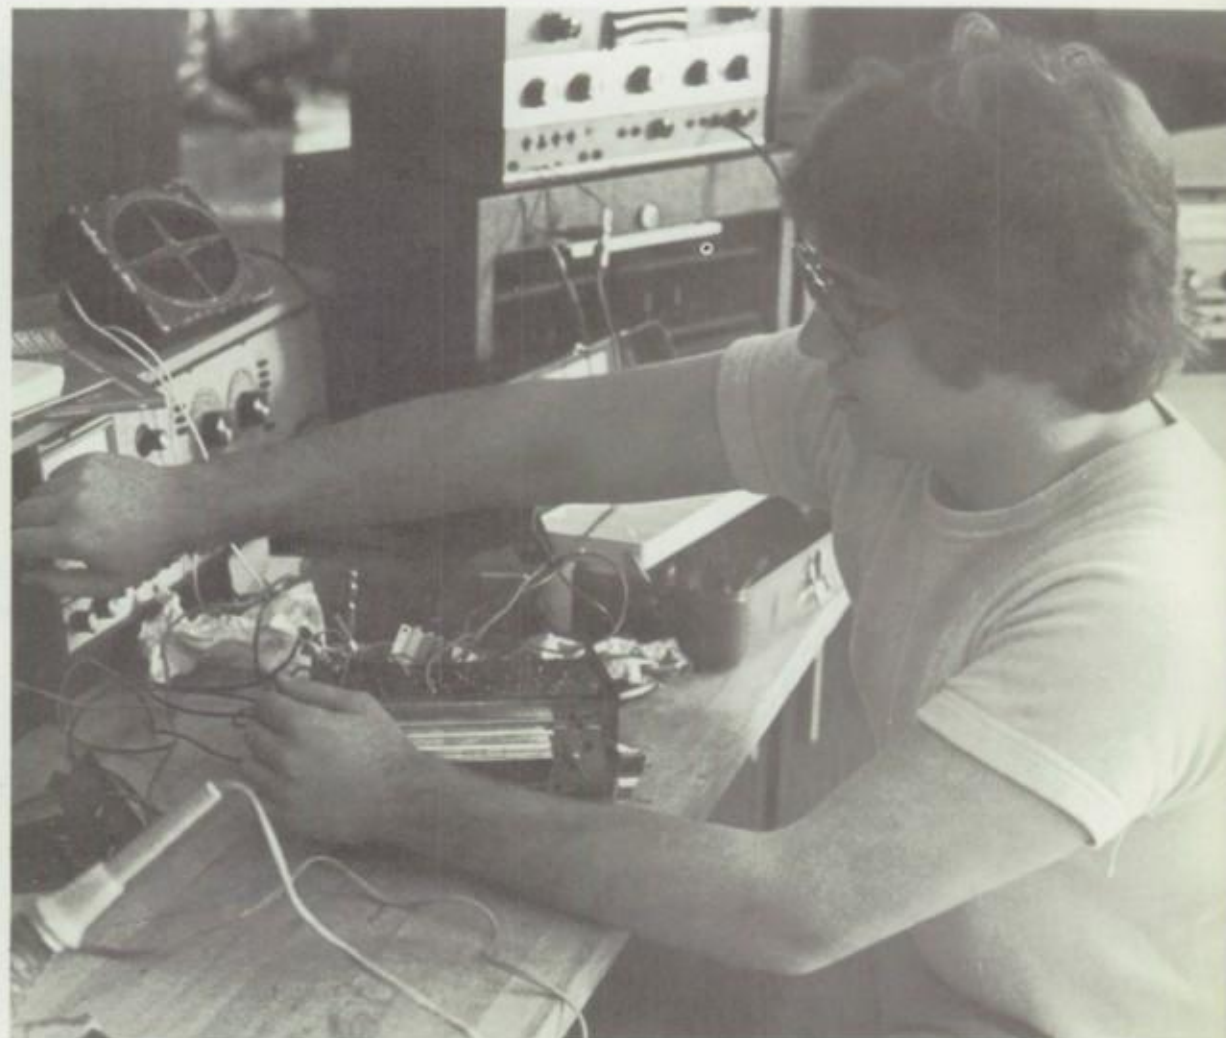

Vocational-Technical Juniors - Front Row: Cynthia Shaw, Barbara Schleher, Diane Walker, Judy Foster, Theresa Chordas, Lillian Rolon. Second Row: Lisa Mauss, Donna Pallotti, Vicki Murl, Barbara Michalski. Third Row: Eugene Hoffman, Chris McDonald, Julius Sabo, Jeffrey Sienkiewicz, Frank LiVolsi, Richard Migliaccio. Fourth Row: Mark Bradbury, John Laske, Louis Kagel, James Schulz, Mark Dillon. Fifth Row: Paul DiGiacomo, Gregory Pylypiak, Kevin Fleming, Martin Mainzer, Jerome Martucci. Sixth Row: Joseph Grehan, Joseph LeCain, James DiLouie, John Langan, Richard Owens, George Mason. Back Row: Walter Apgar, Stephen McCormick, Gregory Mershon, Thomas Burzachiello, Diego Tempesta, Chester Marczak.

Stephen McCormack, junior, strips a car body for a "repaint job" at Assunpink Center of Vocational Technical School.

Gadgets and dials present no difficulty for senior Fred Roney in Electronics.

Lorraine Mucha, 6A, applies her expertise in hair styling to her fellow student Joan Papp, 7A, at Vocational Technical School.

Both Chris McDonald and Jeffrey Sienkiewicz, juniors, handle delicate TV repair equipment like "old-timers."

Sypek Center offers Business, Arts

Eighteen SAH juniors and seniors follow the shared-time program at the Sypek Center of the Mercer County Vocational-Technical Schools in New Jersey, opened in September, 1975.

The following courses are available at the Sypek Center only: Advanced Business Machines, Commercial Art, Graphic Arts and Plumbing and Heating.

At Sypek, five senior girls learn advanced Business Machines and two senior boys; namely Donald Slabicki and Joseph Wasko, study Graphic Arts. Christopher Mattis, senior, has drawn the design which VICA (Vocational Institutional Clubs of America) will use for its cover.

What a pleasant atmosphere for Drafting! These three juniors: Louis Kagel, Diego Tempesta and Joseph LeCain fit well into the set-up.

INTERMISSION

Various dancers pause for a moment to show that the opposition can be friends in the GAA Show.

Here's a dance to see and they call it "Charley!" Kimberlee Chiarello and Gail Dallas lead the way around.

Bobbie socks and saddles are in as Bandstand Boogie rocks-n-rolls to fame.

Girls Athletic Association promotes 13th show

Mistress of Ceremonies, Jeanne Wysocki, contributes her "talent" to the GAA show by singing a popular song.

Monkeying around, Michelle Ahern and MaryAnn Ceremsak seek their reward.

Gold Team Captain, Joan Petruccio, and Co-Captain, Mary Jane Groff, give an idea of the excitement and enthusiasm the GAA show brings on.

Every year the girls at SAH unite to aid the school financially and to promote school spirit through the GAA show. At this year's 13th GAA show, held from November 1 - 4, the Brown and Gold Teams, battling it out, won with a score of 64 - 46 in favor of the Gold.

"Hollywood Brings on the Stars" themed the show. Four types of talent participated: dancing, gymnastics, cheerleading and balance beam. Some 1977 stars were "Rocky," "Jiminy Cricket," "Winnie the Pooh" and "Arabian Nights."

Mistress of Ceremonies, Jeanne Wysocki, School President, who announced winners of the 14 events, made her contribution to the show by singing.

Time contributed by the Awards girls and their leader, Lorraine Gilbert, insured fair judging.

Brown Team takes lead on First Night

This year Lauren Barbero and Diane Schroth captained the Brown Team who were first-night winners. The cheerleaders led by Theresa Schwing and Marina Mackov opened the show. Mary Brennan and Anna Marie Venanzi's interpretive dance, "Tropicana Presents," followed.

Deborah Pege and her monkeys rolled onto the floor in "Monkey Madness." Next came "Get Happy," a tap number. The usherettes led by Catherine Tardugno and Crystal Perrine seated the audience. "The Chase" was a balance beam number performed by Linda Schroth. A jazz routine headed by Lisa Jaroni and Nancy Kurilla entitled "Dancing Usherettes" followed.

The second half of the GAA Show started with Michelle DiAntonio, Elizabeth Basioli and Nancy Dzurainin leading their girls in "The Arabian Nights." The gym was happy with Karen Auletta and Alison Dilworth's interpretation of "Bandstand Boogie." Michelle Crawford, Snezana Miljkovic and Carol Langan crawled their way to the floor in the "Lobsters." Nancy Kurilla and Sharon Higham honored Walt Disney's Winnie the Pooh in "Disco Winnie."

Winners of the First GAA Sportsmanship Award, "The Lobsters," demonstrate their perseverance to "sea" their act landed.

Walt Disney's Winnie the Poohs succeed in dazzling the spectators with their rendition of "Disco Winnie" and win First Non-Dance Award.

Rena Lamachia relives Judy Garland's "Get Happy" as she taps to victory for Third Best-Event Award.

"Watch out, Hollywood!" Here comes Anna Marie Venanzi and Mary Brennan showing off their talent in "Tropicana Presents" which won Third Best Costume and Event Awards.

Brown Team's Linda Schroth displays her ability and firmness of movement as she maintains her balance.

"Arabian Nights," Mary Ann Ceremsak and Diana Sagnip, mystify the audience with their presentation, and win Second Best-Costume and Event Awards.

Gold team wins 1977 GAA show

Gold Team, headed by Captain Joan Petruccio and Co-Captain Mary Jane Groff, started their winning attempt with cheerleading "Train Conductors" led by Lucy Valletto and Theresa Piwonski.

Leaders LuAnne Barbato and Diane Barber with the "Birds" strutted down the floor to an interpretive "Birdwalk." Gymnastics followed with Anne Scaccetti's interpretation of "Rocky." Angela Matera, Patricia Skrajewski and girls tapped onto the floor in the "Crickets." The usherettes discoed to "Native New Yorker" led by Donna Pyle.

Gina Maisto performed solo on the beam as a "Ballerina." Leaders Kimberlee Chiarello and Gail Dallas danced to "Clap Hands, Here Comes Charley."

Mary Beth Candelori and her "Baby Face Nursery" opened the second half of GAA Show. Lisa Storcella and Mary Anne Montervino led the "Jeanies" in a Jazz dance. Nancy Parichy's "Jump, Shout Boogie Aviators" tapped their way to the sky.

Gracefulness and poise describe Gold Team's Gina Maisto as she puts on a captivating performance.

"Birdwalk" Leaders, LuAnne Barbato and Diane Barber, lead the flock to First-Place Best Costume and Second-Place Best Event.

These talented babies, Mary Beth Candelori and Ann Scaccetti, prove that babies do have fun when they won Third Best Event.

Capturing a First-Place Best Event and Third-Place Costume, the aviators stand at attention before take-off time.

Crickets, Cynthia Bystrzycki and Barbara Segretario, chirp their way through an impressive act.

Gold Team gymnastics feature these Italian Stallions "going to fly now." The Stallions won Second-Best Non-Dance Award.

Masked and unmasked teachers join in Halloween fun.

Steven Herceg, 4B, and Linilda Dos Santos, 3B, show off their dancing styles at Halloween Dance.

Sister Therese and Miss Kathleen Faraglia contribute services to SC's sponsoring of Halloween Dance.

Halloween dance stages original costumes

Diane Barber, 2A, observes as Mr. Bushelli and Jeanne Wysocki, School President, put on their act.

One of many Student Council-sponsored events, the Halloween dance starts activities each year. The imagination of the student body is evident as many people arrive in their unique costumes. Described by Student Council President, Jeanne Wysocki, as a huge success, this year's dance proved to be the best. The originality in this year's costumes was evident in the winners' of the costume category.

Best costume award went to Robert Adams, 1B, for his portrayal of Darth Vader from the motion picture Star Wars. Renee Kardos, 4B, came as a kite and soared away with the prize for most original costume. Joseph Tattoni, Junior Class Vice-President, in his portrayal of the Headless Horseman won in the most horrible costume category.

Complimenting the spirit of the event were the chaperones and faculty members Al Zacharka, Doug Hice, and Jerry DiColo who masked for the festive occasion. Miss Lois Yencha, SC adviser, Miss Kathleen Faraglia and Sr. Therese moderated the dance.

A few masqueraders, Theresa Lanzoni, 5B, Judith Bodnar, 1B, and Barbara Cook, 2B, recognize each other in Halloween costumes.

Kathleen Larkin, 5C, incognito, reveals her secret to Christina Mostrangelo, 7D.

Diane Chiacchio acts role of homecoming queen

"Homecoming Queen for 1977 . . . Diane Chiacchio," greeted the spectators before Mr. Richard Carson, Associate Principal, officially crowned her. David Cardona waits to escort Diane.

Good football weather set the stage for the Homecoming Game with Lawrence High on November 12, 1977. At half time judges chose the winning float and Mr. Richard Carson, Associate Principal, crowned the Queen.

Diane Chiacchio, 1977's Queen, accepted the honor from 1976's Queen, Patricia Monti. David Cardona escorted Diane.

The court consisted of: Angela Matera, escorted by John Petrino; Joan Petruccio, escorted by Jeffrey Migliaccio; Karen Stencel, escorted by John DeLorenzo; and Erika Wildmann, escorted by Stephen Hornyak.

Students offer food baskets at Thanksgiving

The second drive for Thanksgiving food baskets for the needy started a week before Thanksgiving under the direction of the St. Anthony Student Council.

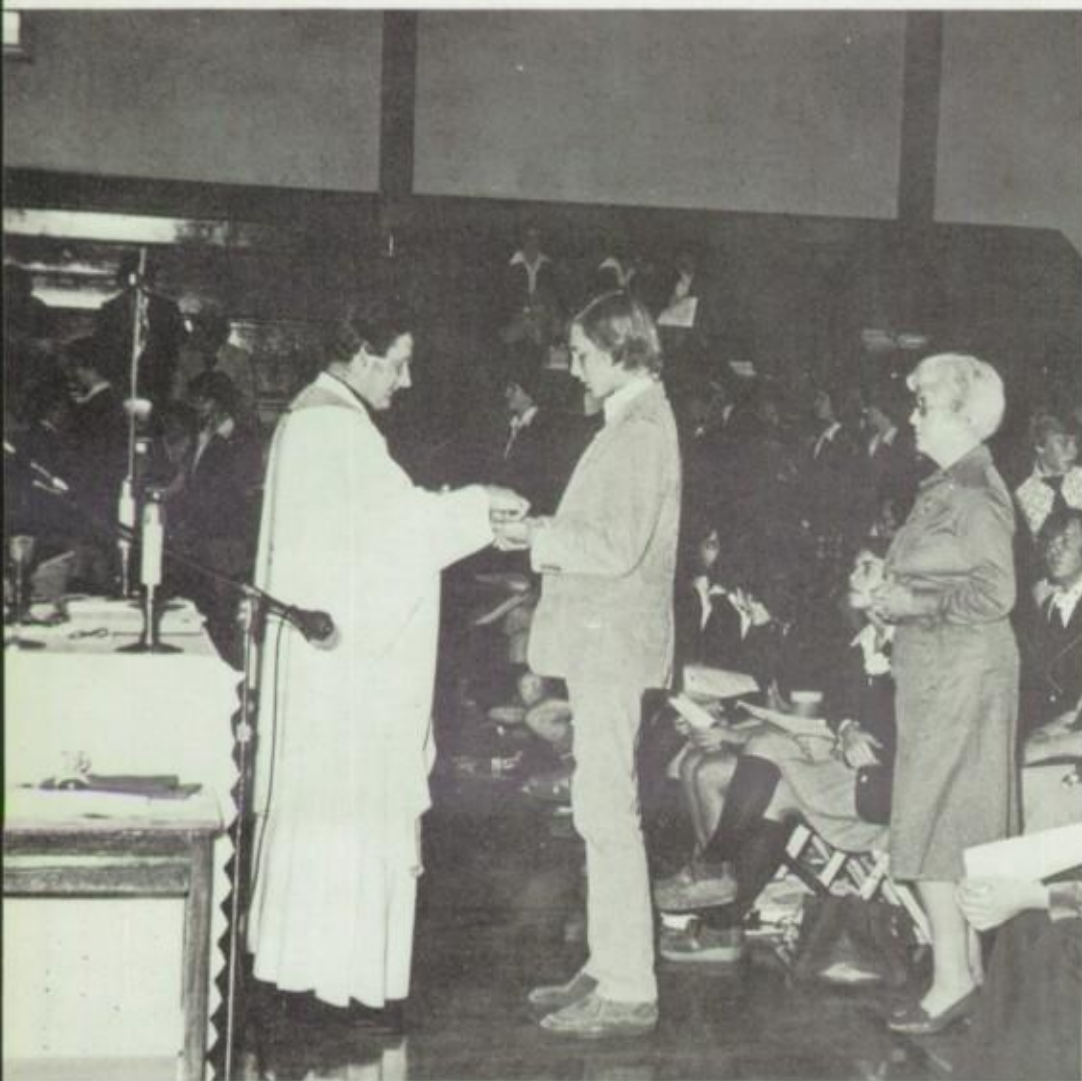

The SC asked each homeroom for specific food items to fill baskets which the Catholic Welfare Bureau distributed to the poor.

After collecting foods and organizing the baskets, the SC arranged that students carry these offerings up during the Thanksgiving Masses.

At these Thanksgiving Masses, celebrated on November 21 for Seniors and Freshmen, and on November 22 for Juniors and Sophomores, the students presented the basket donations at the Offertories. The Religion Department in cooperation with administration planned the liturgies of the Masses.

William Ellis, 3C, Paul DeGregory, 3C, Donna French, 3C, Harry Day, 3C, and Leslie Leili, 5C, return to seats at Thanksgiving Mass after carrying offerings of food baskets donated by students.

At Thanksgiving Mass, November 22, 1977, Ronald Greany, 4C, receives Holy Communion in the hand from Father Minogue, Chaplain. Mrs. Bernice Carson, Comptroller, waits to receive the Eucharist.

Freshman Class follow a prepared liturgy for Thanksgiving Mass.

Christmas show combines music, drama, art

The cast of "Our Lady's Clown" — Stephanie Treglia, 9A, Gina Maisto, 5B, Mary Beth Candelori, 2B, Raymond Kushnir, 5C, Patricia Guadagno, 4C (Our Lady), Nancy Kurilla, 5C, Carolyn Russo, 7C, Denise Magyar, 6A, Rodney Hillsman, 4C — witness the "miracle."

Dancers Rodney Hillsman and Nancy Kurilla perform in the Christmas Play, "Our Lady's Clown."

The Music Department under the direction of Mr. Timothy Ketterer, provided instrumental accompaniment for the Language Department's Spanish, German and French carol singing at the Christmas Festival on December 20-21.

In addition to the musical entertainment, students enjoyed the enacting of a play, "Our Lady's Clown," organized by Mrs. Constance Wokoun, from a European gothic legend. The play's religious theme centers on a group of traveling minstrel-like entertainers.

Main characters in the drama were Raymond Kushnir, a monk; Nancy Kurilla, Our Lady's Clown; and Joseph Tattoni, the monk narrator. Patricia Guadagno posed as Our Lady. Dance and mime filled in between speaking parts and narration. Dancers were Stephanie Treglia, Rodney Hillsman, Gina Maisto, Mary Beth Candelori, Denise Magyar and Caroline Russo.

Joseph Tattoni, 8B, takes the part of priest-narrator in "Our Lady's Clown."

As Raymond Kushnir huddles in repentance, dancer Stephanie Treglia brings her gift.

National Honor Society requires scholarship

The National Honor Society includes juniors and seniors recognized for their scholastic achievement. Students must also demonstrate leadership, character and service to qualify for membership. Continued demonstration of these qualities is necessary for a member to remain in the Monsignor McCorristin Chapter of the NHS.

Under the guidance of Sister Arlene and Mr. Kevin Sirak, the NHS participates in several activities during the school year. During the fall members assist at the PTA Fashion Show. Working at the annual Spaghetti Supper provides another opportunity for the NHS to serve. The yearly Christmas program at the Morris Hall Home for the Aged highlights the club calendar. Implementing their creative talents, members produce at Morris Hall a show combining singing, dancing, and gift giving.

Membership in the NHS officially begins at the Induction Ceremony held during the spring.

Santa Claus, played by John Fell, 3B, rings holiday spirit throughout the crowd of NHS members and Senior Citizens.

Maggie McManus, 6A, happily looking on, rests her fingers after playing the organ for NHS Christmas Party.

Students sing out their hearts to entertain Senior Citizens at Morris Hall.

Newly inducted members of NHS stand proudly on stage before parents, teachers, and friends.

Sister Arlene, Moderator of the Monsignor McCorristin Chapter of the National Honor Society, talks over important criteria essential for membership with President Marie Carney.

The National Honor Society officers, President, Marie Carney; Secretary, Stacy Fysz; Treasurer, Douglas Schindewolf and Vice President, Susan Texany, stand under the portrait of the founder and director of St. Anthony High School for whom the chapter of the Honor Society is named. President, Marie Carney, holds the charter of the Honor Society.

Matthew McClanahan, 6A, in relaxed absorption, chats with a delighted Senior Citizen at Morris Hall.

Induction of 30 members tops Z club activities

Each new member has lighted her candle in the Z-Club symbol.

The officers of the Z Club are Diane Polyak, Secretary; Patricia Rodeawald, Vice-President; Katherine Pugliese, President; and Margaret Petryshin, Treasurer.

Patricia Rodeawald and Marie Carney serve refreshments following the induction of new Z Club members.

The induction of 30 new members and the installation of new officers highlighted the performance of the Z Club this year. Several members of the Zonta Club of Trenton were present and spoke at the initiation. Each new Club member lit a candle to symbolize her new involvement in the club. As a conclusion, the standing members held a party for the new entrants.

This year, Mrs. Clara Stefane, adviser, and Mrs. Marilyn Ciocian, assistant adviser, will aid the girls in their projects and activities. Already, the girls have held a bake sale to benefit a handicapped baby and have continued their sponsorship of a child in Bangladesh. The members have also made favors for the holiday parties at Morris Hall.

In addition to other projects, the girls are planning an Easter egg hunt for the children at the Trenton Psychiatric Hospital. For Z Club members, the 1977-78 school year provides productive service.

As part of the induction ceremony, Nancy Parichy, 7A, lights her candle in the Z Club symbol.

St. Anthony Z Club members listen to a speaker representing their sponsor, the Zonta Club of Trenton.

Key Club members merit many service awards

The Key Club, a school and community service club, aims to help members learn and grow while giving aid to others.

This year, the Key Club, under the guidance of advisers Mr. John Lally and Mr. Calvin Jenkins, completed a number of projects including sponsoring a bi-weekly bingo for residents of Mercer Care Center, working with Msgr. Michael McCorristin at his Christmas Tree Farm, raising funds for the Hamilton Township Lifemobile, and providing programs and announcements for home football games.

These services, and serving at school-functioned suppers, have warranted reception of eight outstanding service awards. These awards serve as a source of pride and motivation for the club's members and advisers who are working in support of their international theme, "Fulfill Man's Hope For Tomorrow."

Key Club Officers-(seated): Secretary Lawrence Goral, 3B, President John Fell, 3B, Vice-President Ronald Denti, 3A, and Treasurer Joseph Consiglio, 2B. Standing: Assistant Faculty Advisor Mr. Calvin Jenkins, William Ellis, 3C, John Jacko, 4B, John Petrilla, 7B, and Faculty Advisor Mr. John Lally.

At an after-school meeting of Key Club, boys and advisers follow the announcements of John Fell, President.

FSA initiates SAH secretarial girls

Mrs. Marcy Beck of FSA hands pin and rose to Karen Auletta, 1B, at initiation ceremony at Steinert High.

The Future Secretaries Association engenders interest in the secretarial field and encourages advanced education to better equip students to qualify for secretarial positions.

St. Anthony High's initiation ceremony into FSA occurred on December 22 at Steinert High School, Trenton, NJ, where the girls received their pins with green and gold letters, the colors for SAH. Each girl also carried a small green candle with a pink sweetheart rose, the flower of FSA.

A candle ceremony followed receiving of pins. From a burning white candle, representing the National Secretarial Association, a gold candle for SAH was lighted. From the gold candle, Mrs. Doris Radice, Co-Adviser to Adviser Mrs. Elizabeth Corvo, lighted a green candle to signify Trentonette Chapter of FSA. From the green candle, each girl from SAH lighted her candle.

Mrs. Doris Radice, Co-Adviser of FSA attends initiation of SAH girls into this organization. Girls are Barbara Pallotti, Michelle Hoffman, Stacy Fysz, 4A, Cynthia Bystrycki, 3A, Karen Auletta and Sherie Applegate, 1A.

Cheerleaders, game after game, support "Iron Mikes"

Dougle exposure reflects the double vigor of cheerleaders Erika Wildmann, Diane Chiacchio, Michele Palmere, Cynthia Barbato, Diane Barber and Kathleen Delate.

Varsity Captain, LuAnne Barbato, smiles in anticipation of what a Brown and Gold day promises.

The cheerleaders of SAH fill three categories: Varsity, Junior Varsity and Freshman. Sister Therese is the adviser for the Varsity and Junior Varsity girls. The Freshman moderator, Mrs. Rosemarie Kerwick, promotes spirit among the girls in the early stages of high school.

The following verse expresses the cheerleaders:

Screaming, jumping, leading cheers,
game after game during high school years.
Showing happiness in victory,
being sorrowful in defeat,
being a SAH cheerleader just can't be beat.
After-school practices, bruises and pain,
very little for all we have gained.
To hard-working, terrific basketball,
soccer and football guys
how terribly hard it will be to say good bye.
Then graduation will come and college,
too;
but one thing is most sure — love for the "Iron Mikes" will always endure.

"Never give in; never give up; charge up." cheers Colleen Smith, LuAnne Barbato, Celia Gerdes and Barbara Segretario.

Student Council, Administration meet monthly

The Student Council acts as an important link between the students and the administration. To allow for the liaison to work, the administration has set up meetings with the senior officers once a month. Here they discuss current problems and try to resolve problems to satisfy both administration and students.

Also for communication sake, the Student Council meets with other student councils of the area high schools to exchange ideas. They also hold exchange days when a few members of the Council go to other high schools for classes while students from those schools attend classes at SAH.

Miss Lois Yench, Student Council moderator, conducts all activities promoted by the school and sponsored by SC. Among the activities sponsored this year were A Welcome Back Dance, Brown and Gold Days, Thanksgiving Basket Collections, Ice Skating Party, Christmas Decorations, Roller Skating Party, Hat Dance, Hoagie Sale, Halloween Dance and "Anything Goes."

Student Council Elections take place in the spring for grades 12, 11 and 10 and in late fall for grade 9.

Student Council Officers — Treasurer Mary Jo Lee, Secretary JoAnne Rogers, Vice President Diane Barber, and President Jeanne Wysocki.

Jazz Ensemble — Mary Mydlowski (Piano), Kenneth Zola (10A) (Alto Saxophone), Girard VanHise (10A) (Electric Bass), Craig Aulford (Percussion), Marianne Straus (Flute), James Szubrowski (8A) (Guitar) and Moderator, Mr. Ketterer.

The Concert Band, conducted by Mr. Timothy Ketterer, includes approximately 18 wind, string and percussion players. Since most of the members are beginners, practices and performances are learning experiences.

The Jazz Ensemble, a small group of more proficient musicians are developing techniques for jazz improvisation. Presently this group is practicing for the spring "Night of Jazz."

The SAH Chorus, a select group of singers formed this year by Mr. Ketterer, conductor, plans to sing contemporary and standard selections.

First talent show, "Puzzle," displays solo acts

Mary Parrotta (7A) sings the Olivia Newton John hit "Have You Never Been Mellow."

The "Puzzle," co-sponsored by the Drama Club and Student Council, showcased all types of talent from teachers and students in the spring 1977.

The name "Puzzle" evolved since all acts in the show fitted together as pieces in a jigsaw puzzle to form one complete picture.

Highlights of this first talent show were selections by SAH Rock Band and acts including piano solos, voice solos, comedy skit and juggling act.

The Folk Rock Band makes its live debut with Sophomore Barbara Burrows, Margaret McManus (6A) and Cynthia Margicin (6A) in the first talent show, "The Puzzle."

Matthew McClanahan (6A) sings "My Way" from his ladder perch in "The Puzzle."

Nancy Parichy (7A) dances with Karen Stencel (8A) in their piece of the "Puzzle."

Junior Prom closes Grade 11 activities

Practically all 105 couples come into view as the camera sweeps its lens across the SAH Gymnasium, disguised by Junior Prom decorations.

John Petrino, Angela Matera, John DeLorenzo and Karen Stencel dance to the tempo set by "Devotions."

Jeanne Wysocki in back crowns Angela Matera Princess for her Prince Charming, John Petrino.

John DeLorenzo and Karen Stencel, third runners-up for prince and princess; Anna Marie Venanzi and Christopher Zsenak, second runners-up; and Diane Tazzi and Salvatore Mareno, first runners-up, stop for "one regal" moment.

"Devotions," the band for the Junior Prom, provided the dance music for 105 couples on the evening of May 20, 1977 in the School Gymnasium.

The Prom which terminated the present seniors' Grade 11 activities had for its theme, "Just You and Me." Dedicated songs included: "I Like Dreaming" for freshman year, "Searching" for sophomore year, "Times of Your Life" for junior year and "Evergreen" for the Prince and Princess, John Petrino and Angela Matera.

A pink, yellow, green and blue-color scheme helped make the atmosphere festive. Large brandy snifters decorated each table. The prom committee, under the guidance of Miss Mary Fitzpatrick, Miss Kathleen Faraglia, and Sister Therese, worked together to make the gymnasium look like the setting for a prom. They gave up Ascension Thursday, May 19, a holiday afternoon to clean, decorate, and set things up.

Students of the prom committee said it was a spirited event.

Couples Robyn Orson and her escort, Suzette Carr and her date, rest after dancing and refreshments.

Prince John Petrino and his crowned princess, Angela Matera, step out to dance.

The Antonian informs with in-dephth Reporting

Mrs. Joan Ruddiman and Miss Lucine Fabian compare awards won by the school newspaper, The Antonian.

News writers on The Antonian — Mark Eckel, Maggie McManus, Janice Muschal (standing) and Linda Fedlenzer and Marie Carney (seated) — discuss headline count.

The school newspaper, The Antonian, keeps the students and faculty informed about important events to come, newsworthy features about past happenings with a slant toward in-depth reporting.

A senior staff of twelve writers and four typists, qualified by journalistic training, publish the current volume six times a year. Two faculty advisers, Miss Lucine Fabian and Mrs. Joan Ruddiman moderate the staff's complete handling of all facets of publication.

Douglas Schindewolf, Editor-in-Chief with his Co-Editor Timothy Ermi professionally organize each issue and supervise all steps from assigning of articles to final page proofreading. Page editors both reinforce and minimize the responsibilities of Doug and Tim.

Journalism classes held once a week after school in Grade 11 prepare the staff in newspaper expertise.

Editor-in-Chief Douglas Schindewolf peruses with his Co-Editor Timothy Ermi the latest issue of The Antonian.

Four typists of The Antonian proofread copy: Patricia Amburg, Anna Marie Venanzi (standing) and Diane Polyak and Linda D'Errico (seated).

Corristin "Cast" includes one-tenth Senior Class

Kathleen Delate and Mark Hagen, Co-Editors of Corristin, look through layout completed for 1978 book with Sister Grace Pierre, adviser.

Section Layout Editors — Patricia Rodeawald, Patricia Edwards, Christina Imhof, Michael Guadagno, Thomas Barry, Kathleen Delate, Susan Texany and Mark Hagen — plan general layout for yearbook.

Corristin, the school yearbook, in its 15th volume of publication, has a large staff of thirty involved seniors. Two Co-Editors Kathleen Delate and Mark Hagen share burdensome details for a 160-page picture book with accent on written coverage.

In agreement with the staff, the theme, "On Stage," dramatizes throughout the book the major presentations of senior class, studies, faculty, activities and sports.

Scheduled to appear in late May, in time for June 1 Graduation, the yearbook has the new feature — colored-picture introductory section — and the traditional feature — a brown and gold cover arrangement.

The guiding force for this many-hour, after-school activity is Sister Grace Pierre.

Copy and Caption Editors — Michael Guadagno, Marie Carney, Ann Crocker, Christina Imhof, Linda Spencer, Donna Marie Spett and Diana Sagnip — take a first look at pictures just delivered by photographer.

More Copy and Caption Editors — Stephanie Treglia, Richard Welsh, Mary Brennan, Dean Bernocchi, Kathleen Pugliese, LuAnne Barbato (seated) and Mark Hagen, David Maziarz, Joseph Notaro, Susan Texany (standing) — have a discussion about returned proofs.

Precise typists — Margaret Petryshin, Diane Polyak, Mary Ann Ceremsak and Denise Magyar — exchange typed copy for proofreading.

Divider Artist Stephen Riccitello shows his proposed drawing to 3-R layout artists, Nancy Paricy and Christina Imhof.

Talisman aims to unify art, writing

The literary magazine, Talisman, now in its 15th year of publication is officially an organ of the senior Creative Writing class taught by Sister Grace Pierre daily from September to January inclusive. Of the 24 seniors who have selected this course, one half form a unit to organize the details of publication.

All members of the class may present several articles (stories, poems, prose essays) that they have written during the course of the five-month creative writing periods. Students from all four years submit, through their English teachers, writings they consider worthy of evaluation.

Editor-in-Chief Marianna Straus and artist Timothy Emmi assemble many drawings and some photos to illustrate the writings. From artistic designs, used by the Creative Writing students to illustrate their final class projects, several have passed the editors qualification for display in the Talisman.

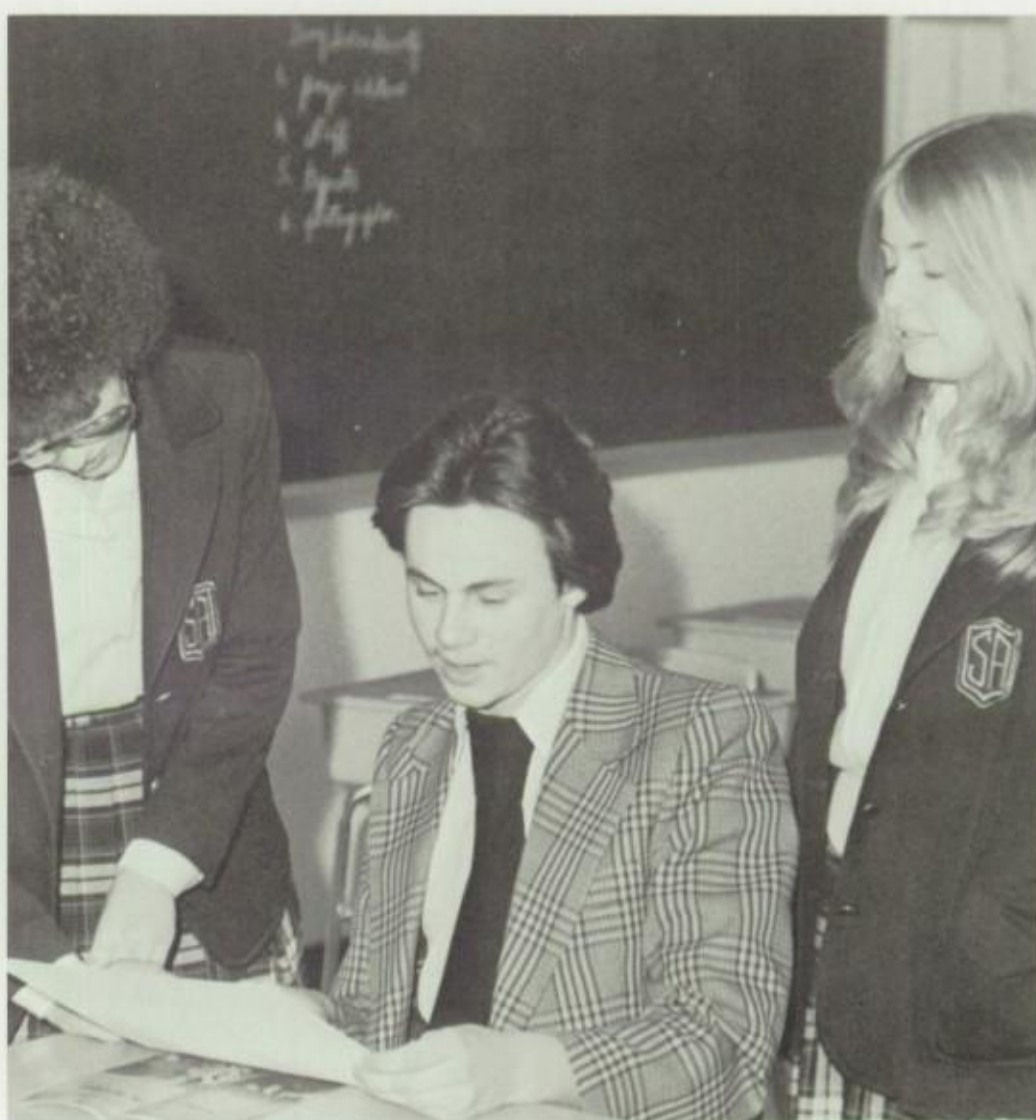

The chief endeavor of the Talisman staff, as they compile accepted entries and designs, is to produce a magazine unified by a dominant theme which links art and writing.

These editors spend much spare time reading entries of SAH Students for Talisman. Editors are Margaret McManus, Cynthia Margicin, Denise Magyar and Kevin Quick.

Editors of Talisman — Matthew McClanahan, Patricia Rodeawald, Linda D'Errico and Linda Spencer — consider layout of articles for spring issue of Literary Magazine.

Editor-in-Chief Marianne Straus on the right, plans the cover of 1978 Talisman with staff member Kristin Guagliardo and art editor Timothy Ermi.

Soccer team bows to Irish

After beating Notre Dame Soccer Team in their previous meeting this season, the Iron Mikes fell twice at the hands of the Irish, the last contest being a 4-1 setback in the opening round of the Parochial Class "A" State Tournament. This was contrary to last year, when the Mikes, for the first time in school history, defeated Notre Dame two consecutive times.

SAH drew first blood in the match when Parochial All-State Tournament lineman, Tom Tuffy, vollied a Paul Anama corner-kick into the enemy net. But Notre Dame refused to fold under pressure and tied the game at half-time, 1-1. After the half-time intermission, the Irish swung the momentum over to their side with a couple of second half goals which terminated SAH's hopes of any further post-season play.

Co-Captain John Petrino praised the team's performance, "I was very pleased with the players on the team. They gave 100 percent of themselves. When someone got hurt, another player filled in and hustled more than the first player. That's what made us a competitive team ---- hustle." From their hustle they earned a respectable 7-7-2 record.

After the season, five players merited recognition for their fine performances. Seniors, Co-Captain John Petrino, Paul Anama, Kevin Herrera and juniors, Kevin Kinnevy and Thomas Tuffy received this recognition from the sports writers and coaches of Mercer County.

All-County Tom Tuffy looks with disgust as a Notre Dame defender breaks up a possible scoring chance.

"Another game gone to the dogs," exclaims Jackie "D."

"Ex-c-c-u-u-s-se me," says Co-Captain Dean Bernocchi.

"Better late than never!" Roy Brooks arrives too late to stop a Notre Dame shot on goal.

All-Colonial net minder, Kevin Herrera, senior, arrives just in time to deflate another Notre Dame attack.

High-scoring junior Kevin Kinnevy adds another to his collection of 13.

Football season brings SAH losses, gains

Looking back, SAH fans find it not too difficult to see what caused the fall season to be one of great despair for the 1977 football team. The team finished with a 0 - 8 - 1 record, the only non-loss being a scoreless tie with Trenton High.

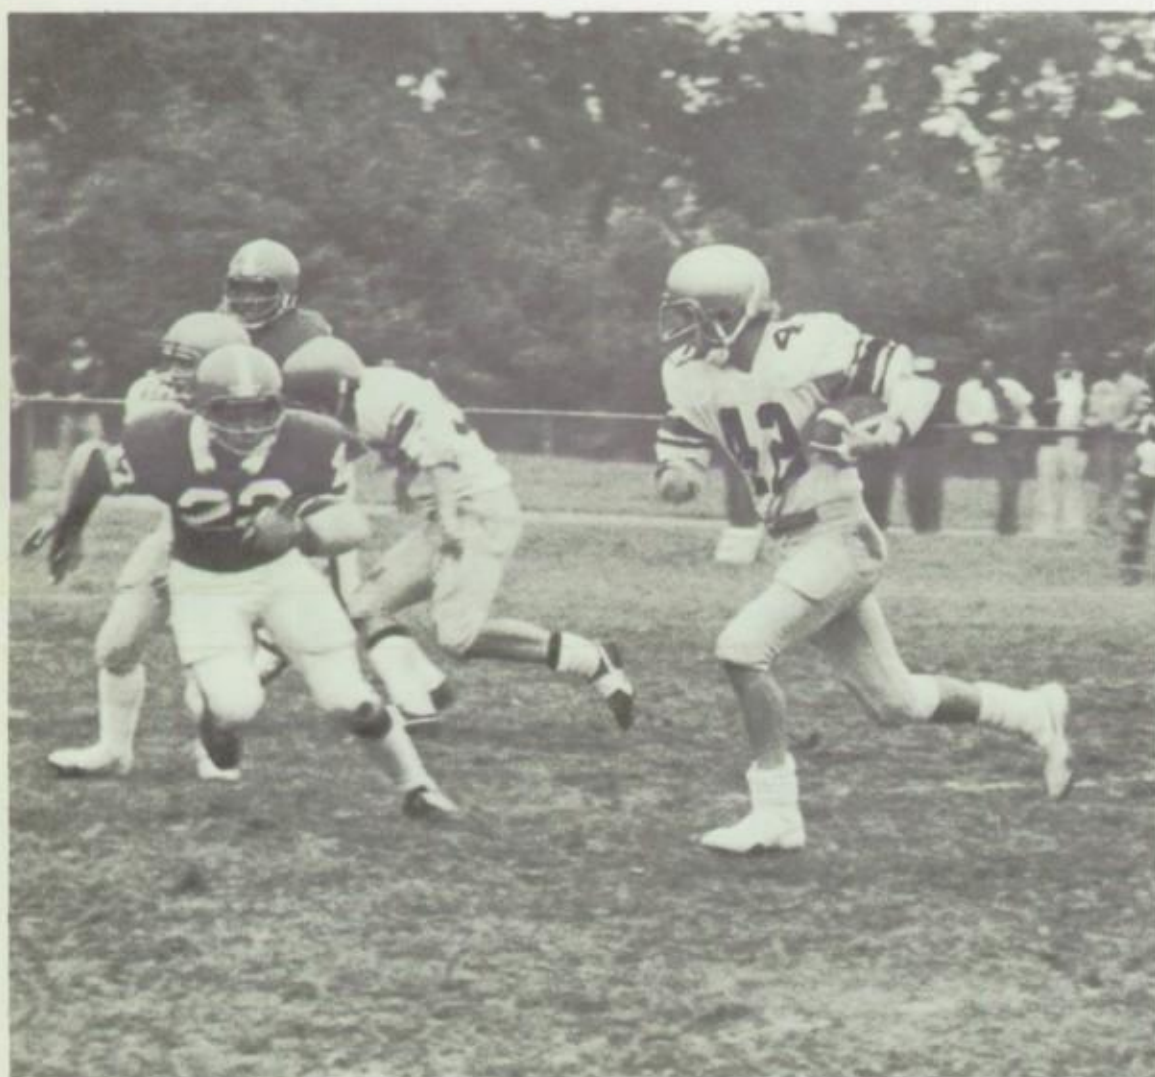

Inexperience was a losing factor since many underclassmen had to play key roles on the team. Many veteran players doubled at offense and defense. Injuries created problems: a number of starters and reserves missed action for most of the season.

In the games the team suffered from mistakes and from not making the crucial plays needed to win a few close games. In four games, the team lost by one touchdown or less — one play could have turned the loss into the win. That's the difference between 4 - 5 and 0 - 8 - 1.

Despite the poor season, there were some bright spots. Joseph DiFalco, the sensational wide receiver, again led the county in making Colonial Valley Conference, All-County and All-Area honors. Others honored included Robert Agos who with DiFalco was named to Hamilton Elks Eleven. Agos also received second team CVC and All-County places.

Senior End Joe DiFalco tears down a pass behind a Ewing defender.

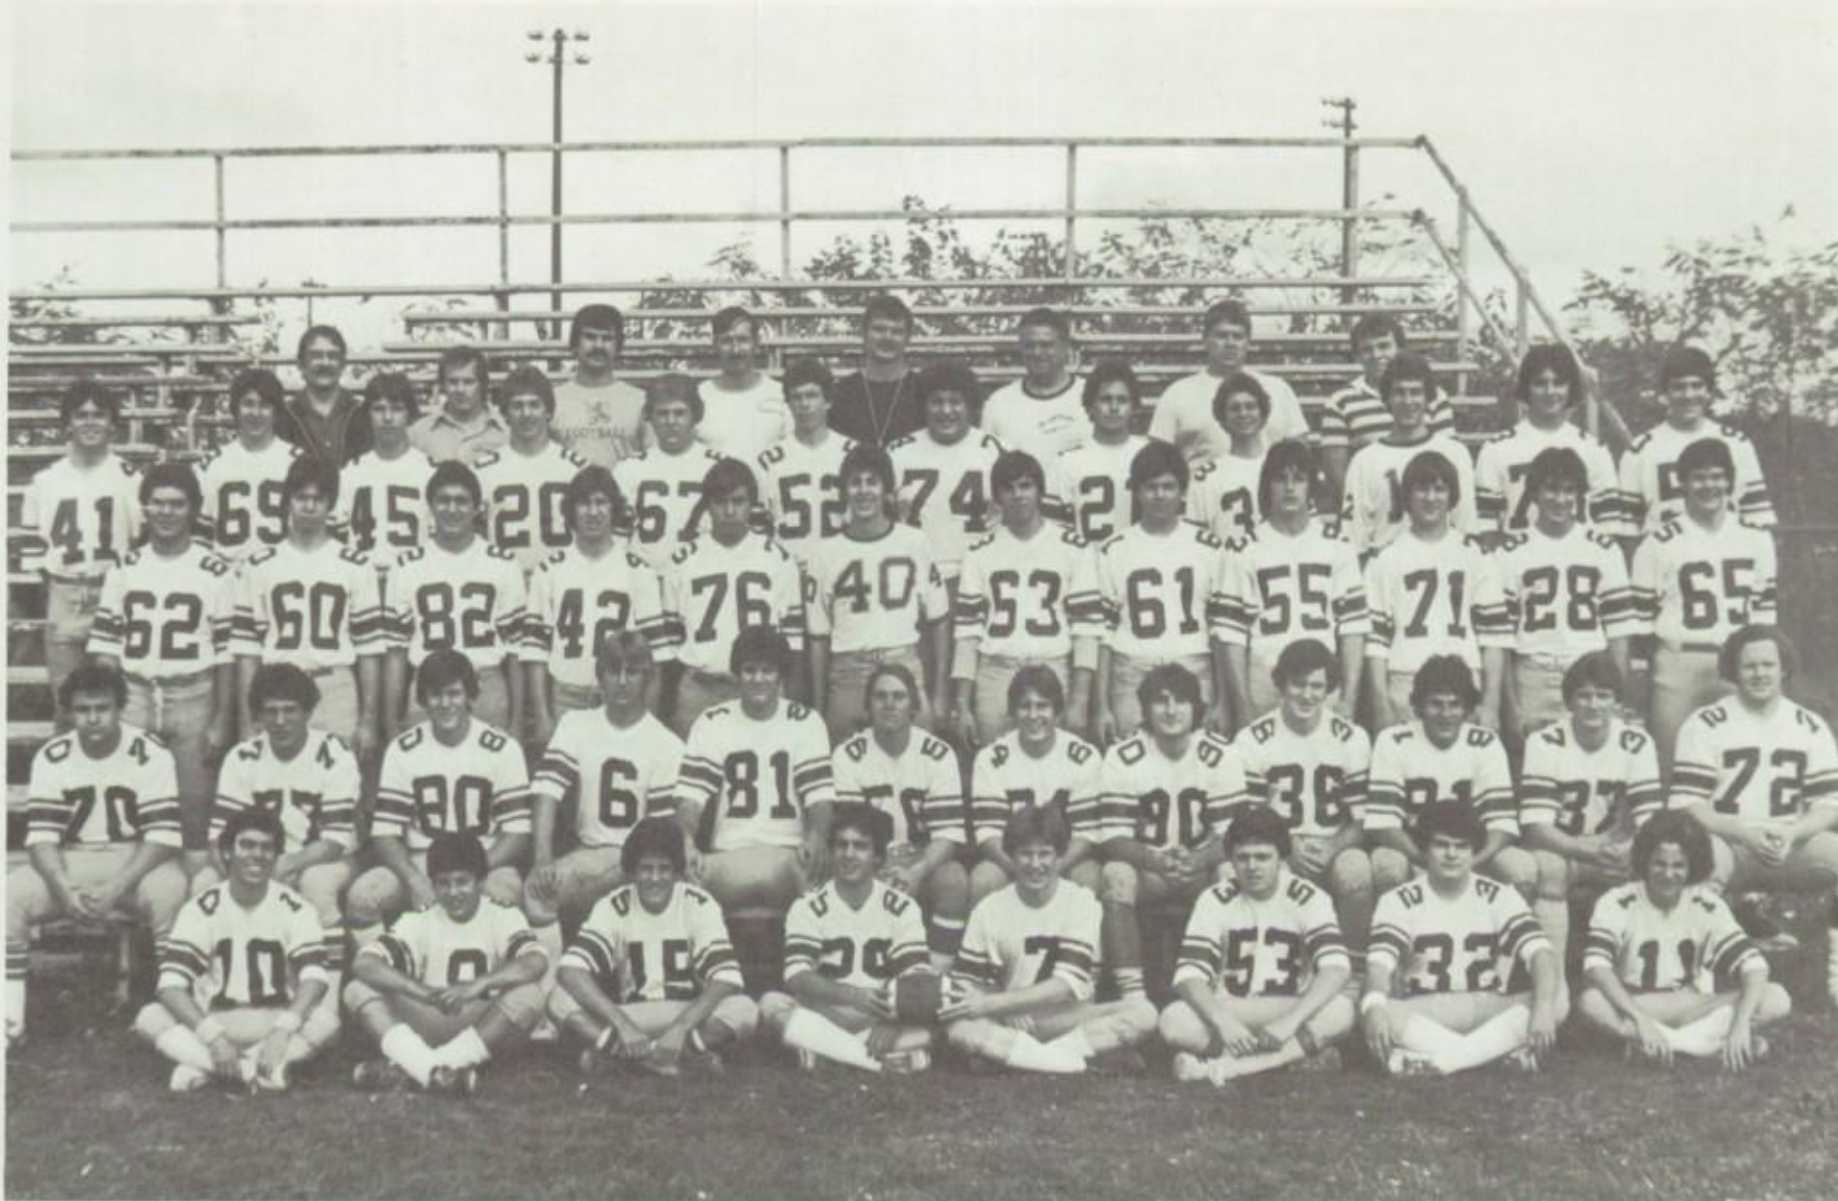

Fred York, senior, puts on a move that leaves Ewing players in the dust.

Through the woods and mud, in the rain and cold, St. Anthony's Cross Country team ran on. Although the team recorded only one victory, many individuals achieved beyond their pre-season goals.

Captain Larry Szmuto placed first in most of the regular meets. Larry also defeated his Colonial Valley Conference rivals with a first-place finish in the CVC meet held at Washington's Crossing, NJ.

Junior Scott Warrack's consistent performance throughout the season made him second man for the team. Kevin Poirier and Gino Benedetti, third and fourth, kept the meets close by out-running their competition and gaining valuable places. Mark Ammann, fifth, gave his best effort in every meet.

The girls' team expanded this year under the encouragement and leadership of veteran runners, seniors, Linda Feldenzer and Kathy Pugliese. Linda and sophomore Kate Larkin, also placing in CVC meet, climaxed the girls' season.

After 21 losses to Trenton High, Mikes triumph

Boys' basketball team accomplished several outstanding victories during the 1977-78 season. Foremost among the victories was the defeat of Trenton High for the first time in 11 years. This win ended a 21 - game losing streak for the Mikes against this foe.

For the second consecutive year, the Mikes captured the championship of the Colonial Valley which they shared with Notre Dame.

Also did the team set a school record by winning the most games in a regular season for SAH. The compiled score of 18 - 6 surpasses the 17 - 7 slate of the great 1967 team.

Important members of the team include seniors - Co-Captains Robert Brennan and Jeffrey Migliaccio and juniors - Roy Brooks, John Bucci and John Amodio. Others who aided in the Mikes' super season were seniors Michael Susko, Joseph DiFalco and Thomas Beckett, as well as juniors Matthew Suta, Anthony Morello, William Taylor, Andrew Kushnirik and Philip Butler.

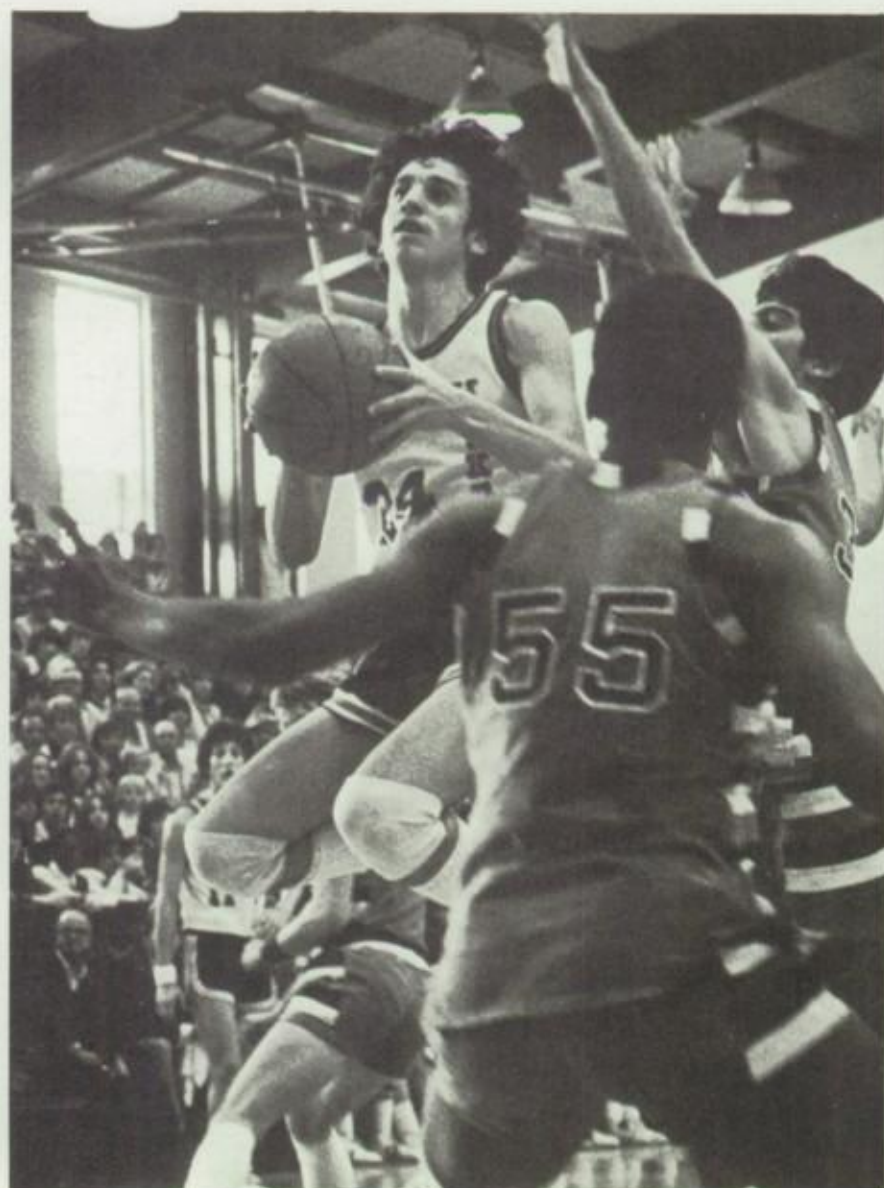

The key to the Mikes' success was excellent teamwork and unselfish play. St. Anthony High didn't have one player who was among the area's scorers but placed four to five players in double figures nearly every game.

"Whoops!" Jeff Migliaccio, coming down for a landing on Notre Dame player, Don Schuler, shocks Roy Brooks.

Joe Di Falco drives for the layup as the Notre Dame defenders helplessly stand by.

John Bucci eyes the hoop as he tries for one of his patented shots.

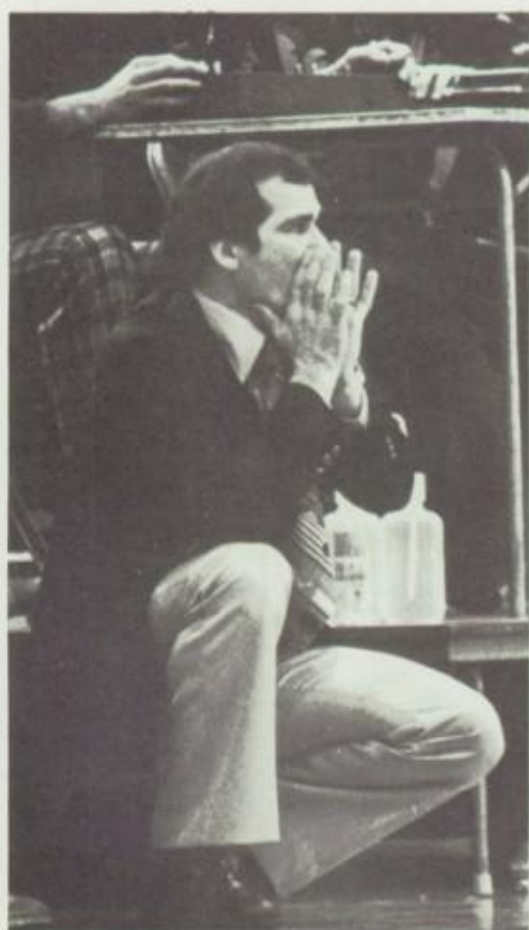

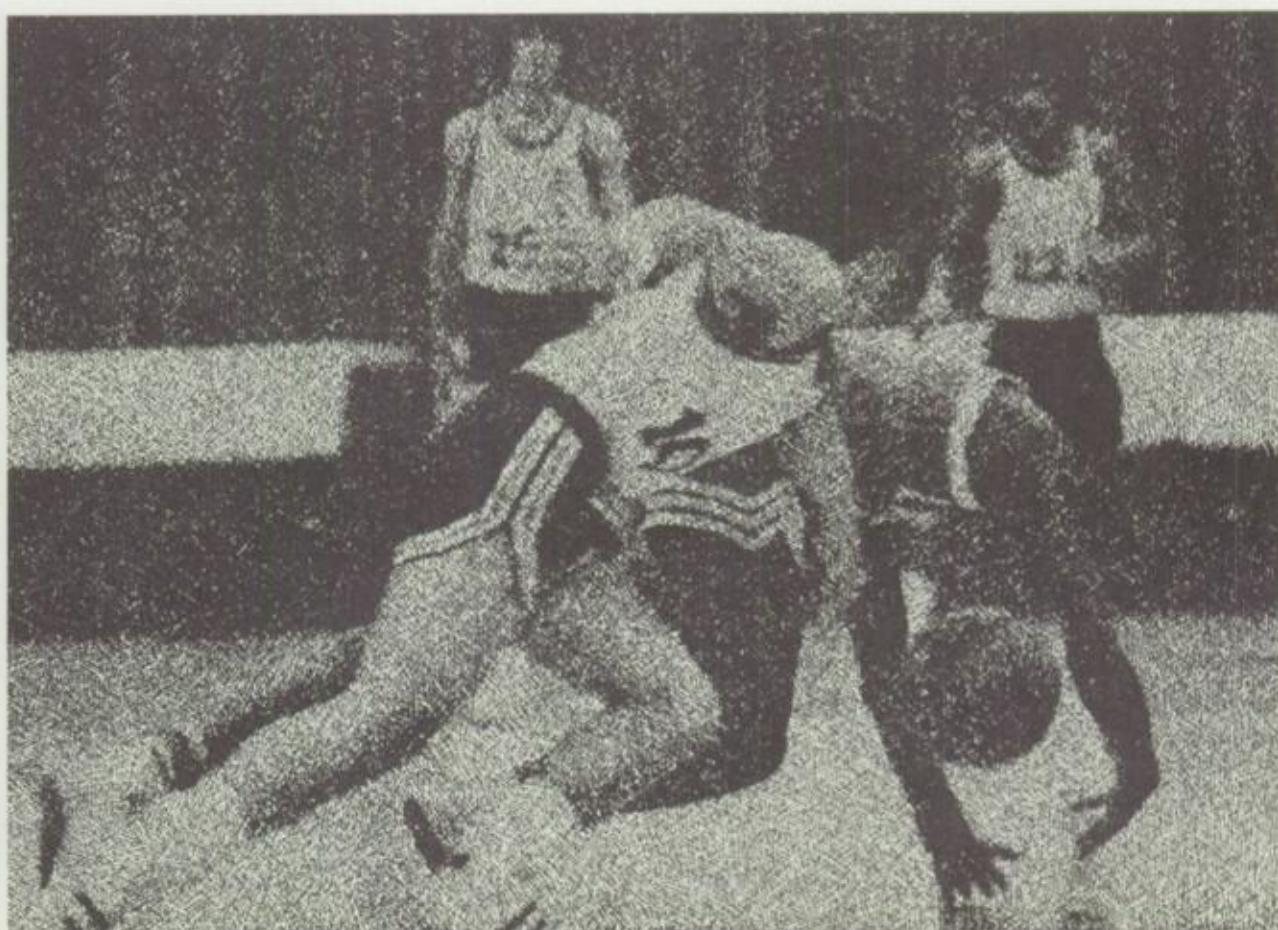

John "Tuba" Amodio throws up a jumper from the corner against two Notre Dame defenders.

Andy Kushnirik releases a one-hand shot as Bob Brennan eyes the ball.

Iron Mike pilot Carmen Nitti calls out a play to lead the Mikes to victory.

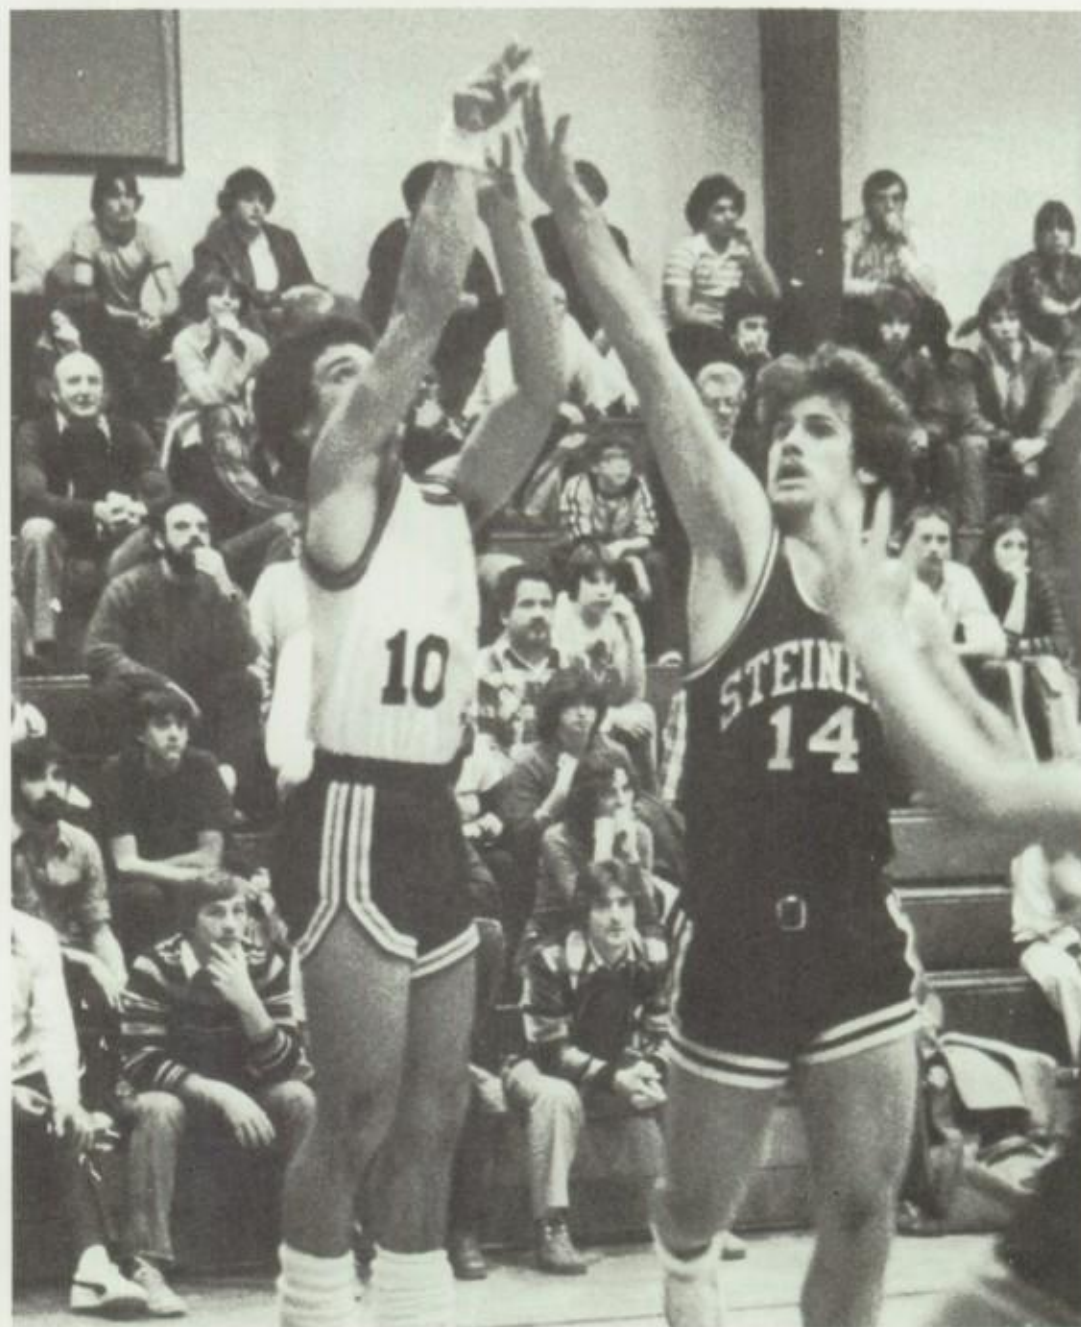

Jeff Migliaccio reaches in to steal the ball. In background Bob Brennan and Roy Brooks look on.

The 1977-78 girls' basketball season became the most startling campaign in SAH history. The girls, under the direction of coaches Kevin Gallagher and Alice Agocs, ended the regular season with a 21 - 2 record.

Being a small team, the Mikes relied on strength and speed. Patricia Sikinger had a solid floor game while Katherine Larkin worked well inside. Debra Donohue was a consistent outside shooter, and Ann Ermi and Diane Zielinski handled the rebounding.

After defeating arch-rival Notre Dame in the opening round of the Christmas Tournament, the Mikes went on to beat Hamilton in the finals. Kate and Debbie both attained All-Tournament Team.

The victory over Notre Dame marked the first time the girls have beaten them in ten years. The girls also earned a share in the CVC title with Notre Dame boasting a 11 - 1 record.

The girls now prepare to enter the state tournament.

Kate Larkin scores 1,000

Mrs. Marie Larkin hands Kate the flowers from Associate Principal Mr. Richard Carson as Bill Larkin gives Kate a brotherly hug.

On February 19, 1978, a packed SAH gym witnessed Mercer County history. Katherine Larkin became the first male or female in Mercer County to score 1,000 points in her sophomore year.

Kate, the county's leading scorer for the second year in a row, accomplished the feat after only 44 games. Going into the game against Notre Dame, Kate needed six points. She scored her 1,000th point on a pass from Patty Sikinger with three minutes left in the first quarter.

The game interrupted, Kate received congratulations from teammates and family and the game ball from Sister Elizabeth Staudenmeier, Principal. Kate's mother, Mrs. Marie Larkin, took from Mr. Richard Carson, Associate Principal, a box of red roses to give to Kate.

SAH continued the game which they won by a score of 57 - 47.

At the rate of 1,000 points in two years, the first girl to reach this in her SAH career, Kate has prospects of 2,000 points by her senior year.

With a 998 record, Kate Larkin can't miss this one — her 1,000th.

Iron Mikes take South Jersey Championship

SAH's Roy Brooks tries to lean around the outstretched frame of Christian Brothers Academy player Mike O'Shaughnessey in the game where the Mikes captured the South Jersey Parochial A Championship.

In the last game of the NJSIAA Parochial A Championship contest, held at Lakewood, the night of March 11, the Iron Mikes relinquished the title of state champs to Bergen Catholic.

Against Bergen Catholic, championship team of North Jersey Parochial A, the Mikes' press worked well, but their inability to force turnovers weighed in favor of their rivals as the buzzer sounded a 69-64 score.

Coach Carmen Nitti's players, rated underdogs at the beginning of the season, stole the Colonial Valley Conference as they ended the most successful season in the school's history.

Entering the playoffs, the Mikes defeated Red Bank Catholic (57-48) and Camden Catholic (58-49) on the St. Anthony court.

At Freehold, the night of March 8, Nitti's players snatched from the Christian Brothers team of Lincroft the title South Jersey Parochial A Champs by 75-72.

Joseph Di Falco, senior, scores two in game with Bergen Catholic (State Final).

Junior Ann Ermi and senior Eileen Larkin chase a loose ball during their state tournament game with Metuchen.

Sophomore Katherine Larkin tries to edge around Asbury Park's Rose Strutz for an easy two.

Girls reach third round in State Tournament

Captain Debra Donoher gets off her shot over Metuchen's outstretched hands.

The girls' varsity ended their most successful season in the third round of the state tournament.

Drawing a bye in the first round because they were fourth-seeded in the Central Jersey Group II, SAH met Metuchen in the second round. The Mikes put Metuchen away, 62-32.

The Mikes then met Asbury Park and lost, 61-54. SAH stayed with them the first half, but could never come closer than three in the second. The loss ended the season with a 22-3 record.

Freshman Pamela Mason's jump shot leaves Asbury Park on its feet.

Sophomore Patricia Sikinger scores two after beating a Metuchen defender.

Seniors first assemble for Mass

The seniors, first assembling as a group on September 12, 1977, took their assigned places in the school gymnasium for participation in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. This assemblage marks the seniors initial act in the ON STAGE drama of their final year at St. Anthony High. To this drama they have brought a unifying class spirit which gained them the school's Spirit Award in their Junior Year.

This unique spirit which has united the members of the Class of 1978 into a forceful 306-unified whole, dedicated to leadership, to learning, and to service, promises to bring them in June another Spirit Award for Graduation.

Senior girl directs students

The Class of 1978 governs the SAH student body under the leadership of the school's first feminine president, Jeanne Wysocki. Of the eight senior Student Council officers, only two are males. Surprising as the election returns were in May 1977, they were evidence of liberal-minded students who have wholeheartedly supported Jeanne in her elected role.

Again this unusual situation among the senior SC officers creates no disunity nor weakened spirit. The first Pep Rally on September 26, 1977, evidenced the unity of the senior leaders because their carefully organized assembly stimulated great spontaneity from the student body.

Scholars play leading roles

Scholars appear among the ranks of seniors, namely Marie Carney, Matthew McClanahan, Margaret McManus, and Katherine Pugliese who ranked among the top 5% of the students who took PSAT/NMSQT in their Junior Year. Of these Margaret has attained Semi-Finalist standing and Marie, Matthew, and Katherine, Commended Students ranking.

These students in the spring of 1977 had offers to start college courses because their PSAT testing scores warranted superior ability. All chose to remain at SAH because either they had pledged themselves to school activities or they had realized the Christian, scholastic and social values of a final year with their spirited classmates.

Religion teachers plan retreats

The Administration and Religion Department has revamped the senior scheduling to provide five Religion periods a week in place of the four in Junior Year. Likewise, has the Religion Department allotted specified times for the Sacrament of Reconciliation and the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for these young adults.

During this year, the Chaplain, Father Liam Minogue, intends to take small groups of seniors to day retreats on school time. Most graciously have faculty members responded to these interruptions in their schedule because they realize the need for students' retreats. Also has Father Minogue offered to transport these seniors as well as to plan their retreat programs.

Fifty seniors attend voc-tech

Of the 90 students enrolled in the school's Vocational Technical program, 50 are seniors. Of these, 40 attend the Assunpink Center and 10, the Sypek Center. Thirty-three have returned for the second year of the two-year programs and 17 have enrolled for the first time in the one-year program.

A major project some of these students helped to complete at the Assunpink Center was the building of a three-bedroom house. At the Sypek Center, Donald Slabicki, student photographer for SAH publications has followed a two-year program in Graphic Arts.

Home-Ec offers Bachelor Living

A few senior boys have invaded the Home Economics domain to learn the art of being self-sufficient during their bachelor days. This course, Bachelor Living, introduces the boys to the basics of sewing and cooking.

For the seniors preparing to enter the world of business, Data Processing/Accounting 2 appears on rosters. Some seniors have opted to take reading-oriented course in preference to literature-oriented courses. Yet, the most significant offering to the Class of 1978 is the opportunity for co-ed physical education, now established at SAH. Also, during the past several years, seniors have had choice of courses, such as Creative Writing, Film, Anatomy and Psychology.

Activities fill lives of seniors

Outside the realm of the classroom, seniors manage many major activities. In sports they are the nuclei of football, soccer, cross country, track, girls' and boys' basketball, softball, tennis and golf teams. Senior officers conduct meetings of National Honor Society, Student Council and clubs, such as Z, Key and Drama.

Some seniors prepared in Journalism edit and write the school paper. With after-school training, many seniors learn to layout the school yearbook. And purely for fun and sport a Class-Trip break follows January testing days. Thus, for the winter of 1978, the school offers seniors several days for skiing and sight seeing in Quebec.

Graduation ends senior drama

In the school gymnasium at 6 p.m. on June 1, the Class of 1978 brings to a close four years of sharing, competing and growing at SAH. Present to witness this final scene in the senior drama are parents, teachers, administrators and Diocesan Directors. The most worthy in scholarship, service and leadership merit special awards at this ceremony.

The graduation program includes Liturgy of the Mass and a Baccalaureate ceremony of student speakers, conferral of diplomas by Principal Sr. Elizabeth Staudenmeier, and address by Bishop George W. Ahr Bishop of Trenton. Also present are Diocesan School Superintendant, Monsignor Thomas Leubking; Director of SAH, Monsignor Michael McCorristin and Assistants to Monsignor, Fathers Liam Minogue and Patrick Fitzpatrick.
